

24 : HOURS OF : PEACE

A special broadcast for Remembrance Sunday 2020

“IN THE TWO-MINUTE SILENCE, I ALWAYS WONDER WHAT PEOPLE ARE THINKING.....”

24 Hours of Peace takes the words of a hundred peace-workers – pensioners and politicians, housewives and activists, veterans and faith-leaders – and weaves them together to create one marathon act of witness. These inspiring and challenging stories are delivered - non-stop, for 24 hours - by a team of performers that mixes community voices with some of this country’s best-loved actors.

Created by author and director Neil Bartlett, TWENTY-FOUR HOURS OF PEACE was originally performed live on the stage of Manchester’s iconic Royal Exchange Theatre and simultaneously broadcast nationally on Resonance FM on Remembrance Sunday 2019. This year, you can hear the entire show on Resonance FM, starting at 10:55am on Saturday November 7th and ending just after 11am on Sunday November 8th. The broadcast will end with two minutes of silence; as part of your Remembrance Sunday 2020, we invite you to join us.

Find out more: 24hoursofpeace.co.uk
Tune in: resonancefm.com

24 Hours of Peace was produced by Thomas Carter Projects, in partnership with Resonance FM and Royal Exchange Theatre.

This project has been supported by Thomas Carter Projects, and the John S Cohen Trust.